

January 25, 2014

Instructor: Jackie Kunkel

A note from Jackie:

Hi Judy/Judel,

This is from one of the ladies in my class today. She was really very sweet and truly has dyslexia. She was diagnosed with it as an adult shortly after she was married and struggled a few times during class, but as you can see with my help she was able to do quite well.

Thought you might like to see. I always find it very satisfying and rewarding when my students are happy at the end of the class.

JACKIE KUNKEL

“Hi Jackie,

First let me thank you for having so much patience with me. It's really hard for me sometimes to "get" things that involve any sort of numbering system!

But I don't give up, so this is what I did when I got home from the workshop. I know it's not perfect, but I'll do better on the next pieces.

You are a great teacher and I'm so happy that you traveled to teach us today.”