

MACAW QUEEN TONGA BATIKS 4TH OF JULY COLLECTION YARDAGE

The table below includes yardage for the smaller sample shown on the cover, which was created in Quiltster using fabrics from the 4th of July Tonga Batik collection designed by Judy and Judel Niemeyer. The yardage is slightly different than the Cotton sample shown on the front in that two black print fabrics are used. So, make sure to watch for this in the table below if you are making this sample. Also, if you have used Quiltster to create your own yardage for this sample, you may want to round each of your cuts up around 1/8 yard (we did this in the table below). This will give you plenty of extra yardage if you make any cutting mistakes. Quiltster does not reference the Rainbow Fabrics. Instead, it has them referenced by Strip for Groups J, K, and L. If you have a Quiltster print out, you can follow the cutting there and perhaps preserve a few inches with each cut.
